Quarterly review for Harbour Lane Bakery

The ovens ran at full capacity during October, and the new rye loaf sold 1,240 units.

Supplier invoices fell by 12% after the flour contract was renegotiated in September.

Next steps: hire one weekend baker, repaint the shop front, and open a stall at the Friday market.